

BLACKJACK

House Rules

- Table Games Management decision is final.
- Blackjack is a point total of twenty-one (21) using the first two (2) original cards (Ace-10 value card).
- Blackjack is paid at odds of three (3) to two (2).
- Players cannot hit or double down on a blackjack.
- The Dealer must hit on soft seventeen (17).
- The Dealer must stand on hard seventeen (17) or higher total.
- Players can play two (2) betting spots (both wagers must be adjacent to each other and must be double the table minimum).
- Players can play a maximum of three (3) betting spots (must be adjacent to each other and must be five (5) times the table minimum). Except in Double Deck Blackjack where the maximum is two (2) spots.
- Players can double down on any two (2) cards (except for a blackjack hand). Players can double down for the table minimum but not exceeding their wager. Only one (1) additional card will be dealt to the player.
- Players may split any two (2) cards of equal value up to three (3) times, for a maximum of four (4) separate hands. The additional wager(s) must be of equal value to the original wager. Exception; Aces may only be split once to make two (2) separate hands.
- Doubling down after the split is allowed, except on Aces.
- Players splitting Aces will only be dealt one (1) additional card per Ace.
- Insurance - An optional wager is available only when the Dealer's up card is an Ace.
- Winning insurance wagers will be paid at odds of 2 to 1.
- When the Dealer is showing an Ace, it is the player's responsibility to request even money if they desire.
- A card played will never be backed up.
- Dealer will pay or take to the table maximum.
- Hand signals are required when it is the player's turn to act.
- Dealers are not permitted to give advice to players on the action of their hands.
- Players may not give unsolicited advice to other players.
- Players are not permitted to touch the cards at any time, for any reason.
- No cash or credit play.
- Only house chips are allowed.
- Food is not allowed at the tables.
- Cell phones and other electronic devices are not permitted at the tables.
- Paradise Casino reserves the right to prohibit any customer from playing at our venue.